

Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister
and mother

June 10, 2018 • Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus longs for us to belong to one family in him, through baptism. Today's readings look at three blessings provided by membership in God's family: understanding, permanence, and hospitality. In Genesis, Adam and Eve, filled with shame, hide from God. God finds them, of course, and sees deep into their hearts. Before God discusses their disobedience, God shows understanding and tenderness by banishing the creature most responsible for their sin:

the serpent. God always understands and protects the members of God's family. This protection does not prevent suffering on earth, but, as Saint Paul explains to the Corinthians, guarantees our permanent, glorious happiness in heaven. Today's Gospel reminds us that God wants to welcome all of us into that glory. Breaking all barriers, Jesus assures us he heartily welcomes all who love and follow him. God's family welcomes, understands, and offers eternal life.

BACK TO SCHOOL FAIR

The Council of Catholic Women has again been asked to help with the Catholic Charities Back to School Fair. We have been asked to focus on dry markers &/ or hand sanitizer, but they will of course accept any school supplies. Also requested are new or like new books appropriate for children from pre school through 12th grade. Cash donations are accepted and appreciated. Please make checks out to Catholic Charities, Back to School Fair. Please have donations in church by July 22. Thank you for your continuous support.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year, Father's Day is celebrated on June 17. There will be a special collection taken at Masses on June 16-17 to care for our infirmed and senior priests. The Fund for Diocesan Infirm and Elderly Priests is a special way for the people of the Diocese of Joliet to express their concern for the welfare of those who have dedicated their lives in service to our pastoral care.

The money in this fund goes toward priests who need help with extraordinary medical expenses or suffer a catastrophic illness. It also provides for the care of the St. John Vianney Villa, home to several senior priests in the Diocese of Joliet.

Prayerfully consider making a donation to help our aged and sick priests as an expression of appreciation for all they have done in exemplifying Christ's mercy, through their spiritual guidance and celebration of the sacraments.

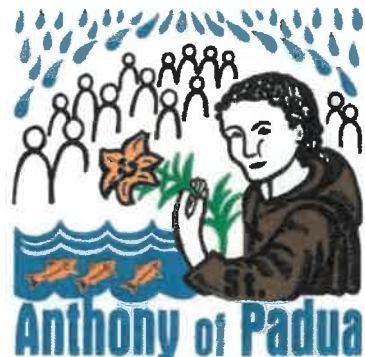

On behalf of all the active and senior priests of the diocese, I am grateful for your prayers and for your generous support of the Father's Day Collection for our aged and infirm diocesan priests. Please be assured of my prayers for you.

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet

Catholic Charities Desperately Needs an Angel. Please Help Today.

Thousands of local families are in crisis right now and need your help. Mothers of young children are on the verge of homelessness. Seniors don't know how they will afford critical prescription medication. Veterans are struggling with mental health concerns and seek support. These scenarios are reality for so many individuals who reach out to Catholic Charities for help.

We are in danger of not reaching our donation goal and we desperately need your help. Please donate today so that we can help as many people as possible.

Catholic Charities has a very special angel who will match your donations (up to $50,000). What a great opportunity to double your gift and your impact on the poor and vulnerable.

Please send in a donation TODAY. Make checks payable to:

Catholic Charities Angel Fund

AMERICAN FLAG

This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation.

MAMA GRIZZLY BEAR

More than any mama grizzly bear, God is ferociously protective of us. Certainly Adam and Eve must accept the consequences for their bad behavior, but God lashes out first and foremost at the serpent, the one who caused them to sin. God is fair, and God is tender. “As a mother comforts her child,” says the Lord, “so I will comfort you” (Isaiah 66:13). Knowing God’s protective love for us, we can echo today’s Psalm 130 whenever we confront distress: “Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice!” Even if, like Adam and Eve, we cause our own suffering, we believe God will always show both might and mercy if we turn to the Lord for help and comfort.

PROPHETIC LIVING

The Corinthians knew what it was like to experience distress and suffering, much of which they caused themselves. Their Christian community, founded not twenty years after Jesus’ death, faced heart-wrenching disagreements and scandalous behavior. To encourage them, Saint Paul wrote that their “momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison.” Saint Paul does not deny their suffering. He does not pretend being a Christian is easy. Instead, he invites the Corinthians to accept their difficulties and put them in perspective: the heaviest burden on earth weighs nothing compared to the mighty glory God has prepared for us in heaven. Living with this perspective makes us prophets. A prophet speaks God’s truth to the world and points God’s people back to the Lord. When we live in prophetic hope, believing in God’s eternal glory, we remind the world of God’s mighty, merciful plans for humanity. Like Saint Paul, we can encourage others to endure suffering bravely and not to grow weary doing God’s will. Jesus promises that if we do the will of God, we are his “brother and sister and mother.” We are his family. And he always protects his family.
